CLOSE OF THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

Over 100,000 persons lay, and clerical formed the great procession which, from a spectacular point of view, closed the twenty-first Eucharistic Congress in Montreal yesterday. It is estimated to close 500,000 people were massed along the route from Place d'Armes to Fletcher's Field, on the mountainside.

Cardinal Vannutelli, walking under a huge canopy and carrying the monstrance containing the host, stood the journey from Notre Dame to the open air altar well, but it was evident that he was completely worn out and that a few moments more before being helped into his carriage after the ceremony, would have seen his collapse.

His calm, pleasant face was pale and drawn and he tottered and almost fell as he ascended the altar steps. Other dignitaries in the procession, many of whom have passed the allotted span of three score and ten, had to be assisted before the end of the route had been reached.

Although the procession was without a hitch, there were many accidents along the route. Enterprising citizens had built grandstands, small flimsy affairs, along the streets on which the procession was to pass. Although they were all inspected and passed upon by the building department of the city, several of them collapsed. Boys fell out of windows, off fences and telegraph poles and women fainted from the crush and heat. Fortunately not a death has been reported.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

KILLED HIS PURSUER.

Claiming that his victim was a member of the Black Hand who had been following him around this country for two years, seeking revenge, Francesco Scagio, aged 21 years, yesterday shot and fatally wounded Giuseppe Ceracolo in Philadelphia. The shooting occurred in the heart of the Italian section and was witnessed by many persons. Scagio was captured by the police after a chase of several squares. Ceracolo was taken to a hospital and died shortly after being admitted. Scagio in his statement to the police said that Ceracolo and he had been members of the same secret society in Italy. He failed to obey a command of the order and came to this country to escape punishment. He was followed by Ceracolo who, he says, dogged him through several towns in the mining regions of Pennsylvania and followed him to Philadelphia.

Determined to end the suspense which he said he labored under, Scagio yesterday sought Ceracolo and saying "I'll get you first," shot him.

FORTUNE IN APPLES.

Commissioner of Agriculture Koiner, who has been taking a look at some of the big orchards of the state, has returned to his office. On Wednesday he visited the fruit farm of James Craig at Waynesboro. Mr. Craig expects to market 10,000 barrels of choice apples this year, from 3,800 trees. He refused an offer of $3.25 per barrel. On the day of Mr. Koiner's visit he shipped a carload of apples destined for Europe.

A fortune in apples in a year is now no uncommon thing in Virginia. Mr. Craig has made a scientific study of fruit growing, and has everything well organized. He uses his fallen apples in the making of cider. By means of a device, he washes his apples with a stream of water as they travel up to the feeder of the cider mill. The apples are crushed so completely that he burns the pulp in the engine which runs the mill, after mixing it with coal.—[Charlottesville Press.

A DETERMINED BRUTE.

Notwithstanding his life has been sought by determined citizens for three days, the unknown negro who Wednesday night attempted to criminally assault Miss Frances Williams, the 17-year-old daughter of a farmer living near Whistler, Iowa, made a second attack on the girl yesterday evening, and the two exchanged shots at short range. Miss Williams went to the barn to investigate a noise, carrying a shotgun along, and when she opened the door a negro, whom she recognized as her assailant of Wednesday night, threw a handful of bran into her face. She screamed and as the frightened negro ran off he fired at her with a shotgun, but the aim was poor. She quickly returned the fire without effect. Poses scored the neighborhood yesterday evening and last night, but found no trace of the negro.

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.

"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.

"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.

"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."

Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

Try Cardui.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

MIRACLES AT LOURDES.

Several miracles are reported in connection with this year's national French pilgrimage to Lourdes and are described in a statement signed by Dr. Boissaire and other physicians who have had the cases under observation.

The first miracle occurred on the first day the pilgrims arrived. A seven-year-old boy, whose face was covered with numerous growths which prevented him from opening his eyes, suddenly recovered his sight.

A woman of 29 afflicted with paralysis of the left side when immersed in the water immediately raised her left hand and wiped some water from her face.

A 72-year-old woman from Paris, who had suffered from ulcers in the stomach for 10 years was so ill on the journey that the last sacraments were administered at Pau, improved at once after being dipped in the water and now eats and drinks normally.

Another Parisian girl who had been bed ridden from spinal disease for seven years felt a tingling sensation in the legs on being placed in the water and in a few minutes raised herself to a standing position without assistance.

Other cures have been announced in cases of paralysis, tuberculosis, spinal diseases and diseases of the bones.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Miss Florence Pardee, eldest daughter of former Gov. George C. Pardee, of California, was killed yesterday in an automobile accident at Corte Madera, Cal. The machine went over the embankment and Miss Pardee was thrown out, suffering injuries from which she died shortly afterward. Mrs. H. H. Sadler, mother of H. J. Sadler, vice president of the Judson Iron Works, of Oakland, was badly hurt. Owing to her advanced age—she is 60—it is feared that her injuries may prove fatal.

As day was breaking yesterday morning an automobile near the United States life-saving station at Nahant, Mass., struck a telegraph post and turned turtle. When the wreckage had been cleared away, Albert Hanna, who had taken several of his friends for a joy ride, and Mrs. Ira Reed, of Nahant, were found dead.

The Paris-bound express from Cherbourg was derailed at Bernay last night. Seven persons were killed and 50 injured. The express was running at terrific speed when it left the rails.

FIFTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE OF AN OLD NURSE.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
